Where we ship

We currently ship within the United States. Because cannabinoid laws vary by state and change over time, we may be unable to ship certain products to certain states. If a product can't ship to your address, you'll be notified at checkout or your order will be adjusted or refunded. We do NOT ship any THC or CBD products to California, Tennessee, Alabama or Idaho. We do not ship any 10mg products to Utah.

Age verification on delivery

Because our products are for adults 21 and older, some shipments may require an adult's signature. Please provide an address where someone 21+ can receive the package.
